

Adjunct Instructors
Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

The Interior Design Technology program at IUPUI is seeking adjunct instructors for freshman level courses in the fall semester (August-December). Courses meet once per week in the morning or evening. Topics include Introduction to Interior Design and Textiles. All materials are fully created. Pay is approximately $3000 per course. Individuals who have a design background, strong communication skills, and a special interest in passing knowledge to others may send a resume to Emily McLaughlin at emmclaug@iupui.edu.
